

Hope

Star

WEATHER
Arkansas—Increasing cloudiness Saturday night; Sunday partly cloudy to cloudy, somewhat unsettled.

VOLUME 35—NUMBER 197

(AP)—Menn Associated Press
(NEA)—Menn Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n

HOPE, ARKANSAS, SATURDAY, JUNE 2, 1934

Star of Hope founded 1889; Hope Daily Press, 1927; consolidated as Hope Star, January 15, 1929.

PRICE 5c COPY

CONGRESS' HAND ON PURSE

Here and There

Editorial By ALEX. H. WASHBURN

CONGRESS did another ungracious thing Saturday, calculated not so much to injure President Roosevelt as to damage the faith of the country in the Democratic majority.

Arkansas Shipping Gift Hay to Drouth Area in So. Dakota

Six Carloads Assembled at Little Rock for Shipment West

RETURN 1930 HELP

Pledges Pouring in to Relief Committee From Arkansas Farmers

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—Six carloads of hay for drouth stricken South Dakota were assembled in Little Rock Friday by members of the Pulaski County Planners Club following a meeting at the Hotel Ben McGehee, and shipment awaits only word from the relief committee appointed by Governor Futrell.

Members also pledged themselves to contribute two carloads of cottonseed meal and cake.

Similar pledges were received by the relief committee from other sections of the state, and it was estimated that at least 20 carloads of feedstuffs

Thanks From Dakota
LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—"God bless Arkansas!" was the message Governor Tom Berry of South Dakota sent across 1,000 miles of wire Saturday from his sun-baked state as the first shipments of hay and other provender went out from several Arkansas communities in gratitude for the assistance extended from the northern neighbor in the 1930 Arkansas drouth.

will be en route to South Dakota, "returning the favor of 1930," by the middle of next week.

Chairman Harold A. Young of the Pulaski Planners Club appointed a committee composed of Mark Valentine, Walter Wilson and Marshall Mainard, to canvass members of the club and other farmers of the county for contributions of hay and cottonseed, or cash.

Cash donations may be sent to the Pulaski county office of the Red Cross whose secretary, Miss Evelyn Powell, is a member of the state drouth committee.

The planters announced that two carloads are ready for shipment at Maunelle, one at Woodson, one at Galloway and two at Scott.

It was announced at the hotel meeting that the Rose City Cotton Oil Company has agreed to exchange cottonseed meal or cake for surplus seed held by farmers and pay the freight to South Dakota.

County Judge Cook told the planters that, while he is prohibited from giving away anything belonging to the county, he will give three and possibly four carloads of hay, anyway, and if there is a protest by a taxpayer the planters agreed to pay the county for the hay.

Chairman Young sent a representative to the county farm to appraise hay, and two carloads are ready for loading and shipping.

The state committee, composed of Miss Powell, T. Roy Reid, assistant director in charge of the Extension Service and Glenn E. Riddell, Missouri Pacific agricultural agent, is awaiting information on freight rates before asking Governor Tom Berry of South Dakota for shipping instructions.

FEIRA May Pay Costs

Five railroads operating out of Arkansas were reporting conferring with the Interstate Commerce Commission on the matter of reduced rates into the drouth area and the state committee was also informed there is a chance the Relief Administration in South Dakota can use federal funds to pay freight charges on behalf of feedstuffs.

Meetings similar to that of the Pulaski Planners Club are being called in various communities in response to Governor Futrell's appeal to Arkansas farmers to "show that the people of this state never forget a friend."

M. W. Muldrow, livestock specialist for the state Extension Service, said there will be little market in Arkansas for cattle offered for sale to escape starvation in the Northwest, so the state is already supplied with enough beef and dairy cattle for its needs.

Country in the northern part of the state need sheep and brood mares, he said, and farmers there might be interested in buying them at attractive prices.

Rain Forecast in State for Week-End

Mercury Drops to 90 Here Saturday; Mid-West Broils

Temperatures Above 100 Degrees Set Record for June Heat

DEATH FOR CROPS

Cattle Turned Loose in Field to Salvage Damaged Oats

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—Held in the grip of a heat wave for the fourth day, Arkansas Saturday looked hopelessly toward a weather forecast of increasing cloudiness to bring showers of relief over the week-end.

The temperature here was 92 degrees at noon, two degrees hotter than at the same hour Friday.

90 Degrees Here

"Saturday was considerably cooler in Hope than the last several days, the Fruit & Truck Branch Experiment Station reported.

The official reading at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon was 90 degrees, against a peak of 97 degrees Friday. The mercury fell rapidly after 6 p. m. Friday, when it stood at 90, to a low of 69 at 7 o'clock Saturday morning.

102 at Chicago
CHICAGO.—(AP)—A ray of a torrid sun bending down upon the parched Middle West Friday established a new heat record for June.

Chicago's maximum of 102 degrees, made the day the second warmest in the history of the weather bureau here. The only time that mark was exceeded was on July 21, 1901, when 102.9 was registered.

Other cities in the Middle West which reported extremely high temperatures today included, Milwaukee, Wis., 104; Morris, Ill., 107; Sterling, Ill., 106; Ottawa, Ill., 107; Hoopstown, Ill., 107; South Bend, Ind., 104; New Ulm, Minn., 108.

From the weather bureau came a promise that lower temperatures would prevail Saturday. At Urbana, Ill., the heat wave that drove the mercury to 105 was broken at 4 p. m. by a heavy rainstorm with hail.

Crops of the mid-continent, already a subject for near despair, on the part of farmers, shriveled still more. More and more acute became the problem of feed for livestock, particularly dairy cows. In some sections, wheat, fed so badly as to be worthless for harvesting, were shifted into pasture for the hungry animals.

A milk shortage in Chicago and other Illinois cities was imminent. Farmers said the only hope was to import feed from other sections.

Heat Center Moves East

Never until 1933 had the mercury touched the 100 mark in June in Chicago. It looked for a while that the all-time record of July 1901 would be shattered, but a few scattered clouds veiled the sun and a slight shift of the wind from the Southwest prevented this extreme being reached.

The area of greatest heat was farther east than on Thursday, when a maximum of 105 or more was reached in the Northwest and in Iowa. Its center appeared to be in Illinois and Wisconsin.

Milwaukee's official reading of 103 degrees was an all-time heat record for that city. The previous record was 102, established on July 30, 1916. South Bend, Ind., where the mercury hit 104 degrees, also had the hottest day on record there. Farm crops and produce in the St. Joseph valley, it was said, were virtually destroyed. The river was at its lowest point for June 1.

Rock Island, Ill., reported the farmers of Rock Island and Mercer counties had conceded destruction of their oats crop by the drouth and were among those permitting their livestock to feed on the burned grain.

Mussolini Beats Italy's War Drum

Tells Volunteers Italy Next Time Will Fight for Herself

ROME, Italy.—(AP)—Premier Mussolini told 10,000 war volunteers Saturday that Italy will fight her next war for herself alone and not on behalf of any other nations pretending to be her allies.

The volunteers gave the premier a tremendous affirmative shout when he asked whether they would be ready to march as in 1914 and 1915.

Bulletins

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—Fire discovered in the plant of the Grobmyer Lumber company early Saturday destroyed the building and its contents, ruined an adjacent home and resulted in slight injuries to four persons. The loss was estimated at between $25,000 and $30,000.

GENEVA, Switzerland.—(AP)—Paul Hymans, Belgian foreign minister, Saturday decided to follow in the footsteps of Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, and leave Geneva and the dying disarmament conference.

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—Governor Futrell before leaving for the commencement exercises at the University of Arkansas Saturday announced that upon his return he would meet with the board of trustees of Monticello A. & M. college, State Comptroller Smith and Circuit Judge Patrick Henry of Monticello to decide upon a course of action—the result of the investigation of student charges against the college administration.

Melon Festival May Be Revived

Y. B. M. A. Will Discuss It at Session Monday Night

The question of whether the Young Business Men's association will sponsor a 1934 Watermelon Festival will be discussed Monday night at a dutch supper at New Capital Hotel.

A committee, appointed at the last meeting of the association to canvass the town and obtain opinions of the various business and professional men and women relative to the renewal of the famed festival, will report on its findings Monday night.

Anyone interested in the proposed festival or the functions of the association is invited to attend the meeting Monday night, starting at 8 o'clock. All members are especially urged to be present.

Church of Christ Picks New Pastor

Rev. Glenn A. Parks, of Morrilton, to Preach Here Sunday

The Rev. Glenn A. Parks of Morrilton has accepted the appointment as pastor of Church of Christ here, it was announced Saturday.

The church has been without a minister following the resignation of the Rev. John G. Reese several months ago.

Members of the church entertained the new pastor and Mrs. Parks with a shower and lawn party Friday night. The Rev. Parks will deliver two sermons Sunday, the first at 11 a. m. and the second at 8 p. m. The public is invited to hear him.

American Airway Awarded Contract

Newark-to-Ft. Worth Passenger Line Over Hope Is Restored

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Six air mail contract awards were announced Friday by the Postoffice Department:

Newark to Fort Worth, American Airlines, Inc.
Billings, Mont. to Cheyenne, Wyo., Wyoming Air Service, Inc.
Boston to Cleveland, American Airlines, Inc.
Cleveland to Nashville, American Airlines, Inc.
Washington to Chicago, American Airlines, Inc.
Chicago to Fort Worth, American Airlines, Inc.

The department said operations probably would start next week and that all will carry passengers.

Ice Cream Supper at Ozan

The women of the Ozan community will sponsor an ice cream supper to be given at the school house on Thursday night, June 7th. The proceeds will go toward the canning kitchen. Ridgill's string band will be there and all candidates are invited to attend.

Sinful Hollywood Passing; Film City Is Going Domestic

Only Tinsel Remnants Remain of Gay, Peculiar Moral Code

STILL IS DIFFERENT

Movie Colony Does as It Pleases, Openly, Not in Hiding

Hollywood . . . glamorous word to America's youth . . . concentration point of adolescent careerists . . . How do the young folks of the famous film colony conduct themselves today? . . . Dan Thomas, Hollywood correspondent for NEA Service, answers this question below. His article is the second in a series of six entitled, "Here's Looking at Youth."

BY DAN THOMAS
NEA Service Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1934, NEA Service Inc.)

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—A real home life with youngsters romping around the house (an old-fashioned existence once regarded cynically by Hollywood's sophisticates) appears now to be the goal of the film capital's younger set.

That seems a strange thing to say about tinseltown and it would not have been a true picture at all a few years ago. However, these last few years have brought unexpected changes into the movie colony. Whereas gay parties and general living used to be the keynote of existence there, hard work now supercedes all else. And it is work of a nature that most demands the relaxation of the comfortable home life.

After sweltering under the terrific studio lights all day long, your girl actress not only doesn't feel like making whoopee, but she can't do it. It is to be the best for the following day's work. Consequently our girls have turned toward marriage and children as the best possible private life.

Many are Domestic

It was a rare instance for the young actress to be a mother in the old days. Today they are numerous. Karen Morley, June Collyer, Joan Bennett, Sue Carol, Dixie Lee, Arlene Judge, Helen Twelvetrees, Jobyna Ralston and Barbara Stanwick all have babies. And Sally Eilers and Frances Dee are about to join the group. Every one of those mentioned above, with the exception of Helen Twelvetrees is married to a screen actor or director. And the fathers are every bit as proud of their youngsters as are the mothers.

What this is a picture of one side of Hollywood, and a rapidly growing side at that, it is not complete. There still is another side that has come down from the old days when working in pictures used to be looked upon as more or less of a lark, with the resulting gay night life.

Still Different

In those days Hollywood wasn't just exactly a normal community—and it isn't today, if one accepts the customary standards of morality. The celluloid colony doesn't. That's where it differs from the world at large.

Oh, everyone here recognizes the fact that certain standards exist. But they exist for the outside world. Since the early days of motion pictures, Hollywood has been a small world within itself—so completely shut off from the rest of the world a life it was surrounded by a high wall. It has its own customs, at variance with public opinions perhaps, but still satisfactory here. The film crowd never has frowned on divorce, never has regarded it a sin for a girl to have an affair and never has known the meaning of prohibition.

A Gossip Town

While there isn't a more gossip town in the world, still everyone here believes that everyone else has the right to live his or her own life as he pleases.

Social standing is based almost entirely upon success. Despite the fact that marriage and a home life is becoming the prevalent thing no man or girl is shunned for preferring something else.

And a girl with a lover is just as welcome anywhere as one with a

(Continued on Page Three)

Camera Snaps New Hollywood

Karen Morley and "Family"

Parley Hopeful of Avoiding Strikes

Textile Walkout Still Scheduled for Monday, However

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Recovery Administrator Johnson left the conference Saturday morning while in seeking to avert a general walkout Monday in the cotton textile industry with the statement that no announcement would be forthcoming until late Saturday.

Hope was held in all quarters that a satisfactory adjustment would be made by Saturday night.

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—An unexpected deadlock between labor and management developed Friday night after efforts of Hugh S. Johnson, National Recovery Administrator, to avert a general strike in the cotton textile industry apparently were not successful.

An all-day conference with labor leaders with Johnson, George A. Sloan, chairman of the Cotton Textile Code Authority, and Robert Brown, chairman of the Cotton Textile Industrial Relations Board, recessed abruptly until Saturday when opposing factions were unable to agree on an adjustment proposal submitted by the NRA administrator.

Johnson, visibly irritated, told newspapermen that the conference would be resumed and indicated that he expected a satisfactory adjustment would be reached.

It was reported the plan in general had been adopted by Thomas F. McMahon, president of the United Textile Workers, and other officials of his organization.

Despite failure to obtain an agreement Friday night, prospects that the threatened walkout would materialize had lessened materially. Johnson believed that opposing spokesmen were weary and ill-tempered after some eight hours of conference and that differences could be adjusted Saturday.

Meantime a special labor board for the steel industry—a method of settlement applied to a previous threat of industrial war—was studied as a means of warding off a huge steel strike.

The steel workers, after spending hours in conference with Recovery Administrator Johnson, Robert S. Wagner, chairman of the National Labor Board, and other, had left the city.

One of Quintuplets Reported Weaker

Babe Turns Blue, Is Revived Only by Treatments of Rum

CORBELL, Ontario.—(AP)—One of the Dionne quintuplets, a little girl infant who weighs about 1 pound 12 ounces, is not making as good progress as her four sisters, Dr. A. R. Dufosse said Saturday afternoon.

Several times the child turned blue because of lack of vitality, and rum was administered to revive her.

This happened in the case of the other children as well, but they show more strength, he said.

Lawyers to Purge Shyster Practices

Tennessee Bar Moves for Local Discipline of Ethics Violators

HOT SPRINGS, Ark.—Robert E. Wiley of Little Rock, general attorney in Arkansas for the Missouri Pacific Railroad, was elected president of the Arkansas Bar association at the closing business session here Friday. Roscoe R. Lynn, also of Little Rock, was re-elected secretary and treasurer. C. T. Colman of Hot Springs was chosen vice president.

The closing feature of the convention, which opened Thursday, was the grand banquet Friday night at the Arlington hotel. Harry L. Ponder of Walnut Ridge, former state senator, was toastmaster.

Drastic changes in both the criminal laws and constitution of the state were recommended in the report submitted by Abner Collins, Ashdown, chairman of the Law and Reform Committee, to combat crime in Arkansas. This state, the report declared, "continues to pay its full share of the nation's crime bill of $12,000,000,000 and the upkeep of approximately 400,000 of our citizens, more than three times the number of men in the standing army of the United States today, who openly and brazenly make their living from crime by preying on the rest of society, while practically every county in the state is hopelessly bankrupt as the result of spending more than half of all taxes collected for general revenue purposes to an ineffectual and impotent effort to enforce the criminal laws under the present archaic system of criminal procedure."

Ed P. McFadden of Hope made a special plea for a new digest, and W.

(Continued on Page Three)

House Refuses to Give F.D.R. Free Hand for Relief

6-Billion-Dollar Relief Bill Reported by House Committee

IS THIS PATRONAGE?

Roosevelt Had Requested Use of Funds Be Left Up to Him

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A deficiency supply bill authorizing a potential 6-billion-dollar relief expenditure by President Roosevelt was reported Saturday to the house by the appropriations committee.

In submitting the measure, however, the committee disregarded the chief executive's request for unlimited discretionary power as to allocations of some funds and tied up certain items by mandatory provisions.

The bill calls for 1 billion 178 million, but contains provisions that all unused borrowing power of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, unspent Public Works Administration (PWA) funds, savings brought about by the economy act of 1933, and unexpended farm administration relief monies may be transferred to feed and clothe the hungry.

In his message to congress the president had asked that no definite restrictions be placed on relief funds except as he requested.

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Democratic leaders in both houses of congress Friday "cracked down" on Republican obstructions and headed the second session of the Seventy-third Congress toward adjournment.

"One of the most tumultuous sessions in recent congressional history wound up with the passage of a 'rag rule' that effectively sews up all opposition for the remainder of the session."

First swung in the central aisle; the house chamber rang with shouts, boos and catcalls. The Roosevelt majority swamped opponents more than 2 to 1 making sure, so far as house is concerned, that the president can get through whatever bills he wants and checkmate any distasteful bills.

William B. Bankhead, Democrat, Alabama, chairman of the Rules Committee, whose job it was to strong-arm the special rule to passage, announced that the Democratic membership had the power and intended to run the house.

Democrats in Complete Control
Congress now can adjourn June 9, as has been suggested, or run on until the last administration bill is through, probably to some time between the 15th and 22nd. Through Speaker Rainey, Democratic Leader Poe Byrnes of Tennessee, and the rules committee, the president will have the say.

In the senate, more genteel but equally effective threats of night sessions ended Republican speeches designed to hold up the tariff bill. By unanimous consent it was agreed that a final vote would be held not later than Monday on the measure that, from the senate point of view, constitutes the largest single obstacle in the way of ending the session.

Stock Control Passes
WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The Stock Exchange control bill was put through congress Friday night with final approval by both houses.

House and senate, without record votes, and with little debate, accepted the conference report compromising controversial provisions between the two branches, and the measure was sent to the White House for President Roosevelt's signature.

Administration assurances to the industrial and financial world that the bill's rider modifying the securities act of 1933 would protect honest businessmen marked final action on the measure in the senate.

Byrnes Assures Senate
This assurance was voiced by Senator Byrnes, Democrat, South Carolina, who led the move to modify the security

(Continued on Page Three)

Markets Hope Cotton Exchange

| New York Cotton | | | |
|--|-------|-------|----------------|
| July | High | Low | Close |
| Oct. | 11.72 | 11.78 | 11.86-11.77 |
| Oct. | 11.99 | 12.01 | 11.89-11.99-12 |
| July up 13 points. | | | |
| New Orleans Cotton | | | |
| July | 11.71 | 11.76 | 11.86-11.73 |
| Oct. | 11.90 | 11.99 | 11.88-11.94-97 |
| July up 7 points. | | | |
| Hope Vegetables | | | |
| Stringless snap beans, bushel.....40c | | | |
| U. S. No. 1 Irish potatoes, 100 lbs/75c | | | |
| Little Rock Produce | | | |
| Hens, heavy breeds, per lb.....8c to 9c | | | |
| Hens, Leghorn breeds per lb.....8c to 7c | | | |
| Broilers, per lb.....13c to 18c | | | |
| Roosters, per lb.....3c to 4c | | | |
| Eggs, per doz.....18c to 12c | | | |

Many a little squirt attracts the eye of a pretty girl.

Hope Star

O Justice, Deliver Thy Herald From False Report!

Published every week-day afternoon by Star Publishing Co., Inc.
C. E. Palmer, & Alex. H. Washburn, at The Star building, 212-214 South Walnut street, Hope, Arkansas.

C. E. PALMER, President
ALEX. H. WASHBURN, Editor and Publisher

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Hope, Arkansas
Under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Definition: "The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, through widely circulated advertisements, and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide."—Col. R. R. McCormick.

Subscription Rate (Always Payable in Advance): By city carrier, per week 10c; six months $2.75; one year $5.00. By mail, in Hempstead, Nevada, Howard, Miller and Lafayette counties, $3.50 per year; elsewhere $5.00.

Member of The Associated Press: The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it, or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

National Advertising Representatives: Arkansas Dailies, Inc., Memphis, Tenn., Sterick Bldg.; New York City, Graybar Bldg.; Chicago, Ill., 75 E. Wacker Drive; Detroit, Mich., 7338 Woodward Ave.; St. Louis, Mo., Star Bldg.

Charges on Tributes, Etc.: Charges will be made for all tributes, cards of thanks, resolutions or memorials, concerning the departed. Commercial newspapers hold to this policy in the news columns to protect their readers from a deluge of space-taking memorials. The Star disclaims responsibility for the safe-keeping or return of any unsolicited manuscripts.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN Washington

YOUR CHILDREN

By Olive Roberts Barton

Two Ways to End Kidnaping—Round-up City's Criminals Is First Step, Says Writer

Congress' Doctor Will Get Promotion and Usual Storm Brews. . . Garner Is Forced to Turn Hermit. . . New Book Will Stir Mild Uproar in Army Circles.

By RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON.—"Doc" Calver, who ministers to the bunions and tummy-aches of the U. S. Congress and dashes to the floor of either House whenever a member collapses from overeating or overheating, will soon be Capt. George W. Calver, U. S. N.

He is only a commander now. And since a grateful Congress wishes to reward him for long faithful—and free—medical service, there's a minor to-do about it reminiscent of the stormy rumble which are always heard from the army or navy whenever a president seeks to raise the rank of a medical officer attached to the White House.

But presidents always have had their way in such cases and you can depend on Congress to take care of Calver. The amiable, bespectacled "Doc" is really an officer of the House, though he also handles sensational ailments.

He was assigned there by the Navy Department in 1898 and two years ago the House took complete control over him with a measure which made him transferable only by House request.

He has an official automobile and three naval enlisted men for assistants. The House has voted unanimously for his promotion to a captaincy—which means a lot more pay—and the bill is in conference.

Other naval officers pout enviously—as they did when President Wilson raised Comm. Cary T. Grayson to a rear admiral and Hoover promoted Lieut. Comm. Joel T. Boone to a commandship, dissolving a naval personnel board which had passed Boone up.

And just as army officers pouted when Harding boosted the celebrated Dr. Charles E. Sawyer from private life to a brigadier-general overnight and when Coolidge gave Major James F. Coughlin a colonelcy.

Roosevelt is the first president in a long time to go without the services of a full-time White House physician.

Garner Turns Hermit
Speaking of health, there's the sad case of Vice President Jack Garner, one of Calver's most illustrious patients.

There's nothing much the matter with Jack's health at the age of 65, but he just can't get the exercise he craves and so has about four extra inches of girth which he hopes to get off this summer down at Uvalde, Tex.

The story behind that is that Garner long ago found he could not go places without being pestered to death. He used to walk around the Capitol every day, which is about half a mile.

But after election to the office made famous by Mr. Throbbottom, he decided to do it with the military academy's graduation day and the wait to tell him what a great man he was how they had voted for him, and all the latest news from back home.

So Jack had to give up trying to take walks.

It was the same way out at the Zoo. Garner was always fond of that place. But after election he found the crowds turning away from the cages of the ring-tailed baboon and the East African aard-vark to gather around him and gape.

People would go racing over the grounds looking for any tiny bit of waste paper on which Garner might write his autograph.

The vice president doesn't even take Mrs. Garner to the movies any more. It causes too much excitement in the audience. A couple of times they even turned the spotlight on him and proudly announced his presence.

Plain, rugged Jack likes people and wants to be nice to them, so he made a bow. But such incidents fluster him and he prefers privacy to the life of a goldfish.

Army Has Uproar Coming
Watch out for an amusing minor uproar when Robert Wolfarth brings out his "Tin Soldiers," a realistic, rather sour novel of life at West Point on June 12. That's the military academy's graduation day and the publisher is thoughtfully shipping up a lot of copies for graduates, undergrads, and their relatives.

Along with the advance copies of solo sending copies of an old Algerian boys' book based on West Point life by Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, entitled "Williams at West Point."

Wolfarth is working with Chief Investigator Steve Baushenbush on the Senate's munitions industry investigation. He is an ex-army officer and West Pointer who lately has served as a military expert for Congressmen.

What can we do to crush the snake of kidnaping, a snake that reaches from coast to coast with hide-outs in most of the big cities?

Well—several things. One step has been taken. The central government no longer leaves the job of catching up with criminals to local authorities. Federal agents are not handicapped by political red-tape or boundary laws.

But in the face of almost certain capture the snake moves on, coils, and strikes in the most unexpected spots.

Part of the extermination can be effected by the mayors of each city. Police departments brag of the fact that they know by sight every first-grade criminal in the land, and those who hob-nob with them.

Criminals at Liberty
As a rule major kidnappings are planned by veterans in crime.

A common practice in most big cities is to allow the known criminal to walk in peace, live in peace and even enjoy himself in peace, as long as he is behaving himself. He is watched and checked as to movement, and knowing this, he gives all the appearance of innocence.

Yet, right in the face of such supervision, kidnaping, and all sorts of major crimes are planned and carried out with no one the wiser.

In union there is strength. The guilty know that their best protection is the gang. The grapevine telegraph of the underworld gets help to the outlaw no matter how far away he works. And gangs live in cities. The racketeer entrenched in the city is safer than a farmer in his field. He needs the city. Also he likes the city.

Extenuating Outlaws
If mayors of every city would clean house and order known criminals to leave, and leave permanently, it would strike at the very roots of their strength.

Some mayors and police heads have done so. This is all very well for that particular city, but it has no real effect as far as extermination goes. They merely move on to another place. They never worry about sanctuary.

To clean up one city means only a little more dirt for another. Unless all city heads co-operate in refusing berth to any of these criminals, nothing is gained.

There would be no likelihood of the underworld setting up a city of its own or even gang camps. They are city-livers and city-spenders—big shots who like the bright lights.

Publish Their Pictures!
The second plan would be for newspapers to publish daily art galleries of criminals. One magazine did so and the quick-witted, sharp-sighted public turned in two-thirds of the number of men sought. This of course was done to track down wanted men. But it would help the other way, too.

Petty criminals can be dealt with at home. But even these should be made to feel that cities don't want them. At the second offense they could be classed with the professional and given their marching papers.

When every city, town and borough repudiates its criminal population, and not until then, will they learn their lesson. Starvation does a lot of things. To crime it seems to be the only answer.

Since an overdose of bright hot sunshine is bad for the complexion, it stands to reason that it isn't good for hair either. Yet many women go to the beach armed with all sorts of protective oils and lotions for their skins, and then forget about beach hats which protect the hair. An excess of sunshine not only will bleach the ends of the hair but dry the natural oil.

Ross Collins of Mississippi, chairman of the House committee on War Department appropriations, who makes life miserable for old-fashioned generals and knows more about the army than any other congressman.

(Copyright, 1934, NEA Service, Inc.)

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

By Alicia Hart

Hair, Too, Needs Protection From Sun.

Since an overdose of bright hot sunshine is bad for the complexion, it stands to reason that it isn't good for hair either. Yet many women go to the beach armed with all sorts of protective oils and lotions for their skins, and then forget about beach hats which protect the hair. An excess of sunshine not only will bleach the ends of the hair but dry the natural oil.

Ross Collins of Mississippi, chairman of the House committee on War Department appropriations, who makes life miserable for old-fashioned generals and knows more about the army than any other congressman.

(Copyright, 1934, NEA Service, Inc.)

To Get the Real Spirit of the Thing

Wear a beach hat at the beach and a small beret or cap when you're riding a long distance in a car with the top down. And don't go bareheaded if you're going to play golf for hours and hours. Such little precautions will do much to keep your hair in a healthy condition. In addition, you should have hot oil shampoos and use your hair brush regularly. If you can't afford hot oil treatments in a beauty shop, you can give them to yourself right at home. Simply put a couple of tablespoons of very warm olive oil in a saucer and then rub the oil on your scalp with your finger tips and, if you have a new permanent, put a little oil on the ends of the hair as well. Wrap a clean towel around your head and go to bed, leaving the oil on all night. Next morning shampoo in the usual way.

The 175-ton organ in Royal Albert Hall, London, contains 10,491 pipes and is said to be the largest and finest pipe organ in the world.

America's first carillon was installed in Metropolitan Methodist church, Toronto, Canada.

Mount Kamet, in the Himalayas, is the highest mountain ever climbed by man; it is eighth highest in the world.

by BEULAH POWELL
©1934 NEA SERVICE, INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
DONNA GABRIEL, circus performer, falls from the trapeze and is injured. To please her partner, MADLINE SIDDA, Donna goes to Madeline's home to recuperate, pretending to be the other girl. She is ashamed of this deception but keeps it up even when BILL SIDDA, Madeline's cousin, tells her to marry him. AMOS SIDDA, Madeline's grandfather who owns the farm, is blind. Mrs. PLANTER, housekeeper discharged by Donna, is her enemy. Donna and Bill are married. Meanwhile Madeline has married CON DAVID, circus animal trainer, and takes part in the animal act.

Amos Sidde has a stroke. In New Orleans Madeline goes into the race along with the Henchman and is killed. Retrace discharges Con. Unable to get work, Con decides to go to the Sidde farm.

He arrives on Thanksgiving day and sends a note to Donna. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXIII

DONNA opened the door of the farm house and faced Pete Rader. She had never seen him before and greeted him with a bewildered, "Yes?"

"I got a note for you, Miss Sidde, and I'm to fetch an answer back."

The moment she saw the envelope an icy chill passed over the girl. She opened the door a trifle wider and asked the boy to come in. Then, making sure she had passed and that there were no witnesses, she tore open the envelope. Her hand shook so violently that the folded sheet slipped to the floor.

Donna stooped quickly and picked it up, conscious that the eyes of the boy were filled with curiosity.

"He's that circus feller that went into the lions' cage," Pete volunteered. "I recognized him."

"Yes," Donna said huskily. She read the curt little note again and then tore it up. "There is no answer," she said.

"But—" "I'll telephone—tell him that."

Rather reluctantly, Pete rose. At the door he repeated, "He said I was to get an answer. You'll be sure to telephone, won't you?"

"I'll phone," Donna promised. She waited until she heard the outer door slam and then hung the scraps of paper into the fireplace. She watched them slowly crumple into ashes, wondering what she was to do. How could she telephone? There was only one telephone in the house and it was in the hallway just off the dining room. Every word she said could be heard by those at the dinner table.

SHE glanced at her reflection in the mirror over the fireplace and saw that her face was pale. She pinched her cheeks to bring back their color, smoothed her hair and returned to the dining room.

"What was it?" Bill asked as she took her place at the table.

"Some—some—some inquiring for the Lawrence place," Donna lied. Fortunately Bill was not looking at her and did not see the deep blush that accompanied her words.

Throughout the long meal (which had lost its favor for Donna)

ments in a beauty shop, you can give them to yourself right at home. Simply put a couple of tablespoons of very warm olive oil in a saucer and then rub the oil on your scalp with your finger tips and, if you have a new permanent, put a little oil on the ends of the hair as well. Wrap a clean towel around your head and go to bed, leaving the oil on all night. Next morning shampoo in the usual way.

The 175-ton organ in Royal Albert Hall, London, contains 10,491 pipes and is said to be the largest and finest pipe organ in the world.

America's first carillon was installed in Metropolitan Methodist church, Toronto, Canada.

Mount Kamet, in the Himalayas, is the highest mountain ever climbed by man; it is eighth highest in the world.

by BEULAH POWELL
©1934 NEA SERVICE, INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
DONNA GABRIEL, circus performer, falls from the trapeze and is injured. To please her partner, MADLINE SIDDA, Donna goes to Madeline's home to recuperate, pretending to be the other girl. She is ashamed of this deception but keeps it up even when BILL SIDDA, Madeline's cousin, tells her to marry him. AMOS SIDDA, Madeline's grandfather who owns the farm, is blind. Mrs. PLANTER, housekeeper discharged by Donna, is her enemy. Donna and Bill are married. Meanwhile Madeline has married CON DAVID, circus animal trainer, and takes part in the animal act.

Amos Sidde has a stroke. In New Orleans Madeline goes into the race along with the Henchman and is killed. Retrace discharges Con. Unable to get work, Con decides to go to the Sidde farm.

He arrives on Thanksgiving day and sends a note to Donna. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXIII

DONNA opened the door of the farm house and faced Pete Rader. She had never seen him before and greeted him with a bewildered, "Yes?"

"I got a note for you, Miss Sidde, and I'm to fetch an answer back."

The moment she saw the envelope an icy chill passed over the girl. She opened the door a trifle wider and asked the boy to come in. Then, making sure she had passed and that there were no witnesses, she tore open the envelope. Her hand shook so violently that the folded sheet slipped to the floor.

Donna stooped quickly and picked it up, conscious that the eyes of the boy were filled with curiosity.

"He's that circus feller that went into the lions' cage," Pete volunteered. "I recognized him."

"Yes," Donna said huskily. She read the curt little note again and then tore it up. "There is no answer," she said.

"But—" "I'll telephone—tell him that."

Rather reluctantly, Pete rose. At the door he repeated, "He said I was to get an answer. You'll be sure to telephone, won't you?"

"I'll phone," Donna promised. She waited until she heard the outer door slam and then hung the scraps of paper into the fireplace. She watched them slowly crumple into ashes, wondering what she was to do. How could she telephone? There was only one telephone in the house and it was in the hallway just off the dining room. Every word she said could be heard by those at the dinner table.

SHE glanced at her reflection in the mirror over the fireplace and saw that her face was pale. She pinched her cheeks to bring back their color, smoothed her hair and returned to the dining room.

"What was it?" Bill asked as she took her place at the table.

"Some—some—some inquiring for the Lawrence place," Donna lied. Fortunately Bill was not looking at her and did not see the deep blush that accompanied her words.

Throughout the long meal (which had lost its favor for Donna)

ments in a beauty shop, you can give them to yourself right at home. Simply put a couple of tablespoons of very warm olive oil in a saucer and then rub the oil on your scalp with your finger tips and, if you have a new permanent, put a little oil on the ends of the hair as well. Wrap a clean towel around your head and go to bed, leaving the oil on all night. Next morning shampoo in the usual way.

The 175-ton organ in Royal Albert Hall, London, contains 10,491 pipes and is said to be the largest and finest pipe organ in the world.

America's first carillon was installed in Metropolitan Methodist church, Toronto, Canada.

Mount Kamet, in the Himalayas, is the highest mountain ever climbed by man; it is eighth highest in the world.

by BEULAH POWELL
©1934 NEA SERVICE, INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
DONNA GABRIEL, circus performer, falls from the trapeze and is injured. To please her partner, MADLINE SIDDA, Donna goes to Madeline's home to recuperate, pretending to be the other girl. She is ashamed of this deception but keeps it up even when BILL SIDDA, Madeline's cousin, tells her to marry him. AMOS SIDDA, Madeline's grandfather who owns the farm, is blind. Mrs. PLANTER, housekeeper discharged by Donna, is her enemy. Donna and Bill are married. Meanwhile Madeline has married CON DAVID, circus animal trainer, and takes part in the animal act.

Amos Sidde has a stroke. In New Orleans Madeline goes into the race along with the Henchman and is killed. Retrace discharges Con. Unable to get work, Con decides to go to the Sidde farm.

He arrives on Thanksgiving day and sends a note to Donna. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXIII

DONNA opened the door of the farm house and faced Pete Rader. She had never seen him before and greeted him with a bewildered, "Yes?"

"I got a note for you, Miss Sidde, and I'm to fetch an answer back."

The moment she saw the envelope an icy chill passed over the girl. She opened the door a trifle wider and asked the boy to come in. Then, making sure she had passed and that there were no witnesses, she tore open the envelope. Her hand shook so violently that the folded sheet slipped to the floor.

Political Announcements

The Star is authorized to announce the following as candidates subject to the action of the Democratic primary election in August, 1934.

For Sheriff
GEORGE W. SCHOOLEY
W. AUBRY LEWIS
CLARENCE E. BAKER
J. E. (JIM) BEARDEN

County & Probate Judge
H. M. STEPHENS

County & Probate Clerk
RAY E. McDOWELL
JOHN W. RIDGILL

Tax Assessor
MRS. ISABELLE ONSTADT
R. L. (LEW) JONES
C. C. (CRIT) STUART

Road Overseer
(DeRoon Township)
E. L. SULLIVAN

Italy Warns Japs on Chinese Trade

Monopolizing of China Threatens New Italian Industries

ROME, Italy.—(AP)—Italy's unqualified objections to any attempt by Japan to establish a "pax Nipponica" in China, as intimated in Tokio's famous April 17 declaration, was announced somewhat belatedly, but possibly nonetheless significant as an inspired article appearing in the same language in all the Italian press on Thursday night. The article, probably comes straight from Premier Mussolini.

Italy's point of view on far eastern policies was declared one of extreme interest in anything that disturbs the equilibrium and she would not consent to see herself put in a disadvantageable position in China where in recent years many Italian enterprises have been started and others are in course of development, says the unofficial statement.

This probably refers to the fact that Italy recently secured a steamship line to Shanghai and has also been dicker for airplane sales and furthermore has sent Italian aviation experts to train the Chinese.

Italy takes note of recent Japanese explanations, but feels her duty to warn Japan that "any policy of monopolizing China will be dangerous," continues the article. China, under the guidance of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek is developing well and is big enough for proper commerce and relations with all nations. Japan should not be lured by China wants an army, navy and air corps to protect herself against enemies within and without.

Italy's point of view on far eastern policies was declared one of extreme interest in anything that disturbs the equilibrium and she would not consent to see herself put in a disadvantageable position in China where in recent years many Italian enterprises have been started and others are in course of development, says the unofficial statement.

This probably refers to the fact that Italy recently secured a steamship line to Shanghai and has also been dicker for airplane sales and furthermore has sent Italian aviation experts to train the Chinese.

Italy takes note of recent Japanese explanations, but feels her duty to warn Japan that "any policy of monopolizing China will be dangerous," continues the article. China, under the guidance of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek is developing well and is big enough for proper commerce and relations with all nations. Japan should not be lured by China wants an army, navy and air corps to protect herself against enemies within and without.

Italy's point of view on far eastern policies was declared one of extreme interest in anything that disturbs the equilibrium and she would not consent to see herself put in a disadvantageable position in China where in recent years many Italian enterprises have been started and others are in course of development, says the unofficial statement.

This probably refers to the fact that Italy recently secured a steamship line to Shanghai and has also been dicker for airplane sales and furthermore has sent Italian aviation experts to train the Chinese.

Italy takes note of recent Japanese explanations, but feels her duty to warn Japan that "any policy of monopolizing China will be dangerous," continues the article. China, under the guidance of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek is developing well and is big enough for proper commerce and relations with all nations. Japan should not be lured by China wants an army, navy and air corps to protect herself against enemies within and without.

Italy's point of view on far eastern policies was declared one of extreme interest in anything that disturbs the equilibrium and she would not consent to see herself put in a disadvantageable position in China where in recent years many Italian enterprises have been started and others are in course of development, says the unofficial statement.

This probably refers to the fact that Italy recently secured a steamship line to Shanghai and has also been dicker for airplane sales and furthermore has sent Italian aviation experts to train the Chinese.

Italy takes note of recent Japanese explanations, but feels her duty to warn Japan that "any policy of monopolizing China will be dangerous," continues the article. China, under the guidance of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek is developing well and is big enough for proper commerce and relations with all nations. Japan should not be lured by China wants an army, navy and air corps to protect herself against enemies within and without.

Italy's point of view on far eastern policies was declared one of extreme interest in anything that disturbs the equilibrium and she would not consent to see herself put in a disadvantageable position in China where in recent years many Italian enterprises have been started and others are in course of development, says the unofficial statement.

This probably refers to the fact that Italy recently secured a steamship line to Shanghai and has also been dicker for airplane sales and furthermore has sent Italian aviation experts to train the Chinese.

Italy takes note of recent Japanese explanations, but feels her duty to warn Japan that "any policy of monopolizing China will be dangerous," continues the article. China, under the guidance of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek is developing well and is big enough for proper commerce and relations with all nations. Japan should not be lured by China wants an army, navy and air corps to protect herself against enemies within and without.

Italy's point of view on far eastern policies was declared one of extreme interest in anything that disturbs the equilibrium and she would not consent to see herself put in a disadvantageable position in China where in recent years many Italian enterprises have been started and others are in course of development, says the unofficial statement.

This probably refers to the fact that Italy recently secured a steamship line to Shanghai and has also been dicker for airplane sales and furthermore has sent Italian aviation experts to train the Chinese.

Italy takes note of recent Japanese explanations, but feels her duty to warn Japan that "any policy of monopolizing China will be dangerous," continues the article. China, under the guidance of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek is developing well and is big enough for proper commerce and relations with all nations. Japan should not be lured by China wants an army, navy and air corps to protect herself against enemies within and without.

Italy's point of view on far eastern policies was declared one of extreme interest in anything that disturbs the equilibrium and she would not consent to see herself put in a disadvantageable position in China where in recent years many Italian enterprises have been started and others are in course of development, says the unofficial statement.

This probably refers to the fact that Italy recently secured a steamship line to Shanghai and has also been dicker for airplane sales and furthermore has sent Italian aviation experts to train the Chinese.

Italy takes note of recent Japanese explanations, but feels her duty to warn Japan that "any policy of monopolizing China will be dangerous," continues the article. China, under the guidance of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek is developing well and is big enough for proper commerce and relations with all nations. Japan should not be lured by China wants an army, navy and air corps to protect herself against enemies within and without.

Italy's point of view on far eastern policies was declared one of extreme interest in anything that disturbs the equilibrium and she would not consent to see herself put in a disadvantageable position in China where in recent years many Italian enterprises have been started and others are in course of development, says the unofficial statement.

This probably refers to the fact that Italy recently secured a steamship line to Shanghai and has also been dicker for airplane sales and furthermore has sent Italian aviation experts to train the Chinese.

Italy takes note of recent Japanese explanations, but feels her duty to warn Japan that "any policy of monopolizing China will be dangerous," continues the article. China, under the guidance of Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek is developing well and is big enough for proper commerce and relations with all nations. Japan should not be lured by China wants an army, navy and air corps to protect herself against enemies within and without.

SIDE GLANCES By George Clark

Can't you be thinking on your speech while you're doing that?

Hickory Shade

Cotton chopping is the order of the day at this place.

Quite a large crowd attended church at Hickory Shade Saturday night and Sunday there was a splendid service at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Muriel Richards and Mr. Simms called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Sims Sunday afternoon.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Joe Ross has been called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Mary Yokum, whom we are told was stricken with paralysis several days ago.

Miss Minnie Gentry was dinner guest of Miss Mittie Re Rogers Sunday.

A number of the Society

MRS. SID HENRY

TELEPHONE 321

June
'Tis Heaven alone that is given away,
'Tis only God may be had for the asking.
No price is set on the lavish summer;
June may be had by the poorest comer.
And what is so rare as a day in June?
Then, if ever, come perfect days;
Then Heaven tries the earth if it be in tune,
And over it softly her warm ear lays;
Whether we look, or whether we listen,
We hear life murmur or see it gladden;
Every clod feels a stir of might,
An instinct within it that reaches and towers,
And, groping blindly above it for light,
Climbs to a soul in grass and flowers. . . . Selected.

The executive board of the Womans Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church will meet at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon at the church.

The Womans Missionary society of the First Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Harry Moore, N. Harvey St. with Mrs. H. C. Whitworth as leader.

and will be all Summer at the—
SAENGER
SUNDAY & MONDAY
Comes the First real luff of the hot days

Here's a couple of red-hot, wise-cracking telephone linesmen. . . provoking a luff a minute in a story that we can recommend as real entertainment.

Spencer presents
TRACY
Jack OAKIE
in
Looking for Trouble
with
CONSTANCE CUMMINGS
ARLINE JUDGE • JUDITH WOOD

—Short Subject—
Paramount News
—Comedy—
"Come to Dinner"

NOW DOUBLE PROGRAM
ALL SEATS 25c
TOM KEENE
"SCARLET RIVER"
No. 6 "Fighting With Kit Carson"
Joan Blondell
"Havana Widows"

Here Tues. & Wed.
Wm. POWELL
BETTY DAVIS
in the biggest of them all!
A fashion extravaganza.

FASHIONS OF 1934

The Womans Auxiliary of St. Mark's Episcopal church will meet at four o'clock Monday afternoon at the church.

Mrs. Arch Moore and little grandson, Arch Moore Ellington were Saturday visitors in Texarkana.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lowthorp, Mrs. J. F. Corin and Miss Mina Mae Millburn were Saturday visitors in Hot Springs, where Mrs. Lowthorp, president of the Arkansas division of the U. D. C. will make an address at the unveiling of the monument at the Confederate Memorial park in that city.

Circle No. 1 of the Womans Missionary society, First Methodist church will meet at 3 o'clock, Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe Smith, N. 5th Main street.

Miss Mary Billingsley if the Lewisville public school faculty has arrived home to spend the summer vacation.

Climaxing a lovely series of entertainments that have been given during the past 10 days as special compliment to Miss Frances White, a June bride-elect, Mrs. John P. Vesey entertained Miss White and her bridal party at a beautifully appointed luncheon on Friday evening at her home on S. Elm street. Baskets and vases of blue hydrangeas, salmon pink gladioli and the druse shades of sweet peas, combined with greenery were used in the artistic decorations throughout the living room and dining room. The guests were seated at one oval shaped table covered with an antique hand drawn cloth and held for its central adornment a Camark pettry bowl in blue, filled with Columbian roses, shaded snapdragons and pink and afterglow sweet peas fringed with rose tamarisk and spinger ferns. Hothouse smilax runners linked it to smaller bowls filled with the same exquisite flowers, the place cards were in the bridal motif and the honoree's place was marked with a beautiful corsage of Columbian roses, sweet peas and lace vine. Seated at the table were the honoree and her bridal party were Mrs. R. T. White, mother of the bride-to-be and Mrs. E. P. Stewart, mother of the groom-elect. In presenting the honoree with a dainty gift, she was also presented with two lovely corsages, one of orange blossoms and feathery ferns, which she pinned on her mother, Mrs. R. T. White. The other was of sweet peas and ferns, which Miss Martha Houston, junior maid of honor, pinned on the mother of the groom-elect, Mrs. E. P. Stewart. Each plate held dainty nosegays of sweet peas, the honoree's was made of orange blossom buds and lace ferns. A delicious three-course luncheon was served.

Circle No. 4 of the W. M. S. of the First Methodist church will meet at 3 o'clock, Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John P. Cox on S. Elm street.

Attorney and Mrs. Edward F. McFadden have returned from a two days stay in Hot Springs, where they attended a meeting of the State Bar association.

Mrs. C. C. Lewis, Mrs. Bob Morris and Mrs. George Wilson Jr. entertained at a most delightful bridge party on Thursday afternoon at the Goddard home on W. Second street. A profusion of lovely flowers including roses, delphinium and sweet peas were used in decorating the card rooms where 10 tables were arranged for bridge. The tables, which were in the spring flower motif were distributed by Miss Virginia Goddard. Favors went to Mrs. Ladd Miller, who received a handsome lace table cloth; Mrs. Comer Boyett, a set of Madeira napkins and Mrs. Franklin Horton a checkered luncheon set. Following the game the hostess served a most tempting ice course.

Mrs. Maggie Bell and Mrs. Ike T. Bell Sr. will spend Sunday in Texarkana guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Martindale announce the marriage of their daughter, Anne to Wylie Jack Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams of Sheridan, which was solemnized at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Wallace W. Rogers on S. Elm street. The bride was attired in pink lace frock with brown accessories. She is a graduate of the Hope high school and is identified with the Business & Professional Womans club, having held several responsible clerical positions in the city. Mr. Williams attended the College of the Ozarks and is a graduate of the state University, Fayetteville, and at present is connected with J. L. Williams & Sons Lumber Co., of this city. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Williams left for a short honeymoon trip to Hot Springs after which they will be at home at 1213 S. Main street.

Mrs. Paul Kaiser has as week end guest, Mr. M. M. Daner of Dallas, Texas.

Among the many pretty parties of the week honoring Miss Frances White a popular bride-elect, was the bridge party given Friday afternoon by Miss Alice and Elizabeth Bernier at the aristocratic Hotel Quantities of the aristocrat of all flowers, the sweet peas were used in decorating the rooms and four tables were used for bridge, with the honoree's place being marked with a lovely corsage of sweet peas. Following the game Miss White was presented with a handsome gift and Miss Eleanor Foster received the high score favor. A most tempting plate lunch was served with iced tea.

Circle No. 3, W. M. S. of the First Methodist church will meet Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. O. A. Graves on N. Washington street, with Mrs. W. T. Gorham and Mrs. Johnny McCabe as associate hostesses.

Telephone Story at the Saenger

Spencer Tracy and Jack Oakie in "Looking for Trouble" Sunday

A new type of "unsung hero" comes to the screen in the Spencer Tracy-Jack Oakie starring vehicle, "Looking for Trouble," which opens at the Saenger Sunday.

This is a story about "trouble shooters"—the emergency men of the telephone company, whose risk it is to clear the wires in times of danger and catastrophe.

Supporting Tracy in this action drama of love and adventure are Constance Cummings, Arline Judge and Judith Wood.

That the "trouble shooter" tribe is a segment of making love as surprising as the difficulties and dangers of live wires is attested by the presence of Constance and Arline who help "man" the switchboards in the interesting telephone "centrals" where romance buzzes over the lines.

The watchword of the telephone emergency crews is that "the wires must be clear," and to accomplish this the trouble shooter braves storms, earthquakes, fire and broken wires. The picture provides intimate glimpses of the dramatic adventures of these unsung heroes, and shows the humor as well as the hazardous side of their lives.

Chairman Blocking Action
Smith said the undersociety of agriculture should be a "real live farmer and a graduate of God's great university." He will oppose any attempt to take the nomination from his committee. He probably will have the support of most of the Republican senators and possibly of several Democrats.

For all practical purposes, Twigg is undersociety of agriculture now. Confirmation would simply mean a pay increase for the former Columbia professor of economics and would also make room for another assistant secretary of agriculture. Farm officials say that they are underdressed with other officials by comparison with other departments.

Democratic leaders say they are certain that Twigg will be confirmed if his name is brought before the senate. A majority of the Agriculture Committee favor his confirmation but have been unable to persuade Smith to allow action.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The Tennessee bar association Friday adopted a program designed to put a check on "sneaking lawyers" through a self-governing organization with power to discipline lawyers involved in unethical activities.

By a vote of about 300 to 20 the association moved for the appointment of committee of 11 to draft a bill providing for the incorporation of the bar, and have it ready for presentation to the 1935 legislature.

Saturday, the annual state convention will consider proposals calling for the repeal of state liquor laws, and urging legislation to curb lynching. A committee, headed by Fitzgerald Hall of Nashville, proposes substitution for existing prohibition statutes, legislation under which liquor would be sold through a dispensary system controlled by a non-political board.

The lynching proposal would call for automatic suspension of the chief of police or sheriff in whose jurisdiction a lynching may occur pending his producing satisfactory proof that the lynching occurred through no lack of diligence on his part.

The committee to be named to draft the association's incorporation bill will report to a special session of the state body.

SEA ISLAND BEACH, Ga. (AP)—Lawyers of Georgia were urged Friday to join hands in an effort to "revive" the legal profession from the "low, money-grubbing racketeering level which threatens it in numerous places," by J. R. Keaton, Oklahoma City attorney.

Earle H. Fincher left Thursday for Fayetteville to attend summer school at the University of Arkansas. Mr. Fincher will be joined Tuesday by Mrs. Fincher who is now visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barber.

A surprise wedding to her many friends was that of Miss Faye Roberts daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Roberts of Hope, and Mr. Eugene Clapp, a student in Harding college, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Clapp of Frederick, Oklahoma, which was solemnized at the home of Rev. and Mrs. John G. Reese, 833 N. Maxwell street, in Marion, Wednesday, May 30, at 5 o'clock a. m., with the Rev. Mr. Reese officiating in the presence of a host of friends. The room was flanked with tall baskets filled with spring flowers. The wedding march was played by Miss Lois Anderson, also a student in Harding college.

The bride was dressed in white crepe with accessories to match and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Miss Beulah Faye Clapp, the groom's sister was the bride's only attendant. She wore a dress in white with accessories to match. Mr. Bernie Bacon, a school friend of the groom served as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Clapp left on Tuesday for their home in Frederick, Oklahoma, where Mr. Clapp will take up work as minister of the Church of Christ there.

With the rapid spread of nudism, said to have 200,000 adherents in the country, some tattooists might work up a comic strip.—Detroit News.

CONGRESS

(Continued from page one)
ites act. Byrnes conceded that under the present law corporation officials had been fearful of "strike suits," but added:
"It is a fair statement that under the new law, provisions as to the civil liability of the underwriter, or of the officers and directors of a corporation are so amended that no honest man need have any fear of the law so long as he is willing to give to the corporation in which he is an officer and in which he has invested his money, the same reasonable care that he gives to the management of his own property."

Copyright, Associated Press

WASHINGTON.—All efforts at compromise, failing, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, Democratic leader, said Friday he planned to move to take the nomination of Rexford G. Twigg as undersociety of agriculture from the Senate Agriculture Committee and place it before the senate.

Because of opposition of Chairman Smith, Democrat, South Carolina, of the Agriculture Committee, no action has been taken and the nomination will fail apparently unless the almost unprecedented move contemplated is resorted to.

Robinson said he planned to force the Twigg issue at the first opportunity. He has tried to persuade Smith to call the committee together to consider the nomination.

Twigg, now assistant secretary of agriculture, was slated for promotion by the president several weeks ago.

Chairman Blocking Action
Smith said the undersociety of agriculture should be a "real live farmer and a graduate of God's great university." He will oppose any attempt to take the nomination from his committee. He probably will have the support of most of the Republican senators and possibly of several Democrats.

For all practical purposes, Twigg is undersociety of agriculture now. Confirmation would simply mean a pay increase for the former Columbia professor of economics and would also make room for another assistant secretary of agriculture. Farm officials say that they are underdressed with other officials by comparison with other departments.

Democratic leaders say they are certain that Twigg will be confirmed if his name is brought before the senate. A majority of the Agriculture Committee favor his confirmation but have been unable to persuade Smith to allow action.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—The Tennessee bar association Friday adopted a program designed to put a check on "sneaking lawyers" through a self-governing organization with power to discipline lawyers involved in unethical activities.

By a vote of about 300 to 20 the association moved for the appointment of committee of 11 to draft a bill providing for the incorporation of the bar, and have it ready for presentation to the 1935 legislature.

Saturday, the annual state convention will consider proposals calling for the repeal of state liquor laws, and urging legislation to curb lynching. A committee, headed by Fitzgerald Hall of Nashville, proposes substitution for existing prohibition statutes, legislation under which liquor would be sold through a dispensary system controlled by a non-political board.

The lynching proposal would call for automatic suspension of the chief of police or sheriff in whose jurisdiction a lynching may occur pending his producing satisfactory proof that the lynching occurred through no lack of diligence on his part.

The committee to be named to draft the association's incorporation bill will report to a special session of the state body.

SEA ISLAND BEACH, Ga. (AP)—Lawyers of Georgia were urged Friday to join hands in an effort to "revive" the legal profession from the "low, money-grubbing racketeering level which threatens it in numerous places," by J. R. Keaton, Oklahoma City attorney.

Earle H. Fincher left Thursday for Fayetteville to attend summer school at the University of Arkansas. Mr. Fincher will be joined Tuesday by Mrs. Fincher who is now visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barber.

A surprise wedding to her many friends was that of Miss Faye Roberts daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Roberts of Hope, and Mr. Eugene Clapp, a student in Harding college, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Clapp of Frederick, Oklahoma, which was solemnized at the home of Rev. and Mrs. John G. Reese, 833 N. Maxwell street, in Marion, Wednesday, May 30, at 5 o'clock a. m., with the Rev. Mr. Reese officiating in the presence of a host of friends. The room was flanked with tall baskets filled with spring flowers. The wedding march was played by Miss Lois Anderson, also a student in Harding college.

The bride was dressed in white crepe with accessories to match and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. Miss Beulah Faye Clapp, the groom's sister was the bride's only attendant. She wore a dress in white with accessories to match. Mr. Bernie Bacon, a school friend of the groom served as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Clapp left on Tuesday for their home in Frederick, Oklahoma, where Mr. Clapp will take up work as minister of the Church of Christ there.

With the rapid spread of nudism, said to have 200,000 adherents in the country, some tattooists might work up a comic strip.—Detroit News.

NEWS CHURCHES

First Methodist Church
The congregation will observe the communion service at the morning hour. The organ numbers will be "Andantino," by Lemaire, and "Contemplation," by Nordman. The anthem will be "The Heavens Declare the Glory of God," by Nordman.

"The Lost Commandment" will be the subject of the pastor's sermon at the service beginning at 8 o'clock in the evening. This is the last of the series of sermons on the "Ten Commandments." The organ numbers will be "Serenade," by Vibbard, and "Eve's Song," by Kauntz. The anthem will be "My Task," by Ashford.

The Church School will meet at 9:45 o'clock. Mr. Chas. Harrell is the superintendent.
The young people's groups meet at 7:15 in the evening.

OUR LADY OF GOOD HOPE CHURCH
Carpus Christ Sunday

800 Low Mass of Exposition, honoring the Blessed Sacrament. Discourse: "The Blessed Sacrament vs. pessimism."
9:00 Benediction with the Most Blessed Sacrament, ending with Benediction.

Friday, Feast of the Most Sacred Heart, Mass at 7, with consecration of the parish and ending the novena, nine day prayer, to the Sacred Heart.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Wallace R. Rogers, Pastor

The pastor will preach at both morning and evening services, and will teach the men's Bible class at the Sunday school hour. The morning sermon subject will be "Suffering Servants" and the evening subject will be "God's Covenant with Us."

F.D.R.'s Youngest Son Is Graduated

James A. Roosevelt Finishes Groton—Father Present

GROTON, Mass.—The president of the United States was just a private citizen Friday watching his youngest son graduate from Groton school.

Mr. Roosevelt was very much a private citizen, made so by the rigorous attitude of his own old school master, Dr. Endicott Peabody, rector at Groton, who resents outside intrusions and resolutely barred practically the whole of the presidential entourage, not only from the graduating ceremonies, but from the school grounds.

Mr. Roosevelt sat with his wife, his eldest son and his daughter, among all the other fathers and mothers and relatives of the graduates, with only a couple of Secret Service men seated near him. Later Mr. Roosevelt lunched in the school dining hall, with the graduates and their relatives and afterwards he sat unobtrusively and watched athletic games. There was throughout a studied avoidance of recognition that the president of the United States was present.

It is not the first such event, however, and perhaps Groton is growing accustomed to such honors. Thirty years ago this spring President Theodore Roosevelt journeyed here to see his son, Theodore Jr., receive a diploma. And last year Franklin Roosevelt came this way at graduation time, but an oblique congress refusing to adjourn delayed him so that he missed the graduation of his third son, Franklin J. Friday a diploma went to the youngest son, John Ashinwall Roosevelt.

Young John, six feet, three inches tall, a thoroughly likeable Roosevelt, managed not to win any of the many prizes awarded for scholastic feats. His cousin, Joseph W. Roosevelt, son of the younger T. R., won the music essay prize, which young John would have not appreciated particularly anyway. There were three Roosevelts in Friday's graduating class, the second being another cousin, Kermit Roosevelt Jr.

The prize day address was delivered by Dr. A. Lawrence Lowell, president emeritus of Harvard University, and Bishop William Lawrence, president of the Groton Board of Trustees, spoke briefly.

Roadster and Phaeton
The two open models, sport roadster and phaeton are invitations in the domestic line in this new chassis model. Both cars are gracefully streamlined and have the same type heavier tail rear end as the closed models. The safety windshield glass is set at an angle of 25 degrees to prevent annoying glare. Seats, located so as to provide maximum leg room, and a comfortable back angle, are finished in a high grade imitation leather over double action springs with soft tops.

Standard equipment on all models includes speedometer, electric gasoline gauge, oil gauge, ammeter, safety glass windshield, vacuum windshield wiper; combination tail and stop-light, and shock-absorbers front and rear.

New Frame Design
The Standard chassis frame is entirely new. It is designed to effect improved weight distribution and better spring mounting, and to provide for a new design of engine suspension. The new frame is wider throughout its length than the 1933 model and its side railings converge from the rear (the narrowest width at the front axle, where they diverge to provide wider centers for the spring eyes and bumper mountings. The new construction permits an increase in front spring travel from 14 to 16 inches.

Power Plant Refined
The new Standard power plant has been refined to give superior low speed flexibility and cold operation, without sacrifice of economy or high-speed performance ability. The engine has a bore of 3.5-16 inches and a stroke of 3.25 inches with a compression ratio of 5.35 to 1.

The entire valve mechanism has been improved and refined to minimize the noise and to insure proper valve action. The camshaft diameter has been increased for greater rigidity. An additional spring has been introduced in each valve train, in the target, to maintain constant contact between the operating parts at all speeds, and reduce the pressure on the valve seats. The tappet spring reflects the valve spring of part of the load, permitting the use of lighter springs for the valves (them selves). The seating surfaces at the ends of the push rods, in the tappet and on the adjusting screw, have been designed

Pulaski Co. Gets on a Cash Basis

In Best Financial Condition of Many Years, Says Judge Cook

LITTLE ROCK.—For the first time in many years, Pulaski county is on a cash basis and has money in the bank. There is sufficient money in the general fund to pay all outstanding warrants and leave a surplus of $2,000. It was announced Friday by County Judge Cook and Treasurer R. E. Kinsey.

Sheriff Branch deposited in the county treasury $88,210.11 collected in taxes during the last half of May, and Judge Cook signed an order distributing it to the government subdivisions sharing in the tax.

The amount credited to the county general fund was $8,752.02, and to this was added Friday $2,247.98 in state land redemption, $2,352.23 in encumbrances from the treasurer's office and $4,234.91 in encumbrances from the chancery clerk's office.

There are still outstanding claims against the county totaling approximately $54,000, of which $37,000 date from the Slick administration, and $17,000 from the Lashon administration, Judge Cook said.

"We want to pay these claims," he said, "and if tax collections this year equal those of last year, we will be able to pay them this year."

Lowest-Priced Six Is New Chevrolet

Standard Six Line Brought Out at Bottom Price of $465

Chevrolet today announced "the world's lowest priced six-cylinder car" with the introduction of the new improved 1934 Standard Six models, supplementing the Master Chevrolet models previously announced.

Two closed and two open car models comprise the new improved Standard Six line, beginning at $465.

The new cars are complete with major improvements designed to achieve better performance, riding qualities, comfort and appearance. Both chassis and body have been completely redesigned in keeping with the latest advances in engineering and styling.

Rideability, and especially stability have been enhanced through the adoption of a wider chassis frame and more widely spaced leaf springs front and rear, in conjunction with a longer front axle and increased tread of the front wheels. These chassis improvements have permitted the use of big, roomy bodies having maximum width and ample leg room.

In the power plant, smoothness, economy and flexibility have been improved through a revision of the inlet and exhaust systems, with higher compression and a refined valve and tappet mechanism, including a redesigned camshaft.

The new models share with the Master series such appearance features as sleek flowing lines, deep fenders hugging the tires, long hood with horizontal louvers, and deeply inclined radiator grille. Numerous interior refinements similarly enhance the style and finish of the passenger compartments.

Smartly Styled
The exterior has been generally designed to add to style and utility. Deep front fenders, extending far over the tires, conceal unsightly chassis parts, with only a shallow "valley" remaining between fenders and hood. Front fenders are formed to extend to the center of the car under the radiator, eliminating the separate radiator splash guard. Fender skirts have been given sharp graceful contours, making them appear to closely fit the tires.

Edges of the fenders have been turned in flanges for extra stiffness. The redesigned front end assembly includes new designs for the hood and radiator grille. The hood is unusually long, and has three horizontal louvers. Front fenders, radiator and headlamps are supported as a unit on a stabilized mounting of improved design, insulated from the frame by a centrally located rubber cushion. Running boards blend smoothly into the fenders and are finished with a cng rubber mat, extending farther toward the rear.

A most pleasing appearance has been gained in the instrument panel. It is wide at the center, the over edge sweeping upward toward the ends in a graceful curve. The instrument group is inclosed in an embossed elliptical bezel, flanked by depressed panels. The steering wheel is 17 inches in diameter.

Closed car models are equipped with Fisher no-draft ventilation, and with a reversed cowl ventilator, opening toward the rear, similar to the arrangements for extra stiffness models.

Among the structural features of the newly designed closed bodies are increased strength resulting from a new design of cowl braces and the bolted roof rail structure; and numerous improvements in the doors, which are equipped with an adjustable diagonal brace, shorter and sturdier hinges, improved dovetails and striker plates, and new, half round lock bolts. Other improvements have been effected in the windshield sealing, the door locks, and the streamlined outside door handles. The closed cars are wired for radio.

The new arrangement gives the inventor priority in all of the countries signing the agreement, though he must complete his filing within a year.

Another change provides that trademarks may be registered separately in any country and sold separately, without prejudicing trade-mark registry in other countries. At present, if a trademark is sold in one country, the owner loses rights elsewhere as well.

The conference declined to take any action on news rights, because the delegates felt they are incompetent to judge the length of time such rights should be safeguarded.

Members of the International Union are: United States, Germany, Austria, Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Bulgaria, Canada, Cuba, Denmark, Free City of Danzig, Dominican Republic, Spain, Estonia, Syria and Lebanon, Finland, France, Great Britain, Greece, Hungary, Irish Free State, Italy, Japan, Latvia, Luxembourg, Morocco (French zone), Mexico, Norway, Holland, New Zealand, Poland, Portugal, Roumania, Sweden, Switzerland, Czechoslovakia, Tunis, Turkey and Yugoslavia, embracing a population of about 800,000,000 persons.

The latest hair styles for summer are short bobs well fitted to the head to suit your individual type. We correct faulty necklines.

Wet Finger Waves .30c
Guaranteed to Stay
Lewis Beauty Salon
Phone 39

Standard equipment on all models includes speedometer, electric gasoline gauge, oil gauge, ammeter, safety glass windshield, vacuum windshield wiper; combination tail and stop-light, and shock-absorbers front and rear.

The Standard chassis frame is entirely new. It is designed to effect improved weight distribution and better spring mounting, and to provide for a new design of engine suspension. The new frame is wider throughout its length than the 1933 model and its side railings converge from the rear (the narrowest width at the front axle, where they diverge to provide wider centers for the spring eyes and bumper mountings. The new construction permits an increase in front spring travel from 14 to 16 inches.

The entire valve mechanism has been improved and refined to minimize the noise and to insure proper valve action. The camshaft diameter has been increased for greater rigidity. An additional spring has been introduced in each valve train, in the target, to maintain constant contact between the operating parts at all speeds, and reduce the pressure on the valve seats. The tappet spring reflects the valve spring of part of the load, permitting the use of lighter springs for the valves (them selves). The seating surfaces at the ends of the push rods, in the tappet and on the adjusting screw, have been designed

U. S. and Britain Join Against Japs

Demand for Naval Parity Will Only Increase White Navies

LONDON, Eng.—(AP)—Japan's anticipated efforts to attain naval equality with the United States and Great Britain will be opposed strongly, it was learned authoritatively Friday.

Opposition to a move for parity in the part of Japan will find objectors in the 1935 naval conference—now definitely slated for London—and in meetings preliminary to the conference. It was said in official quarters.

Great Britain or the United States, or possibly both acting together, were said to be preparing to put Japan on the defensive if there is a serious demand for equality.

One well-informed person said that not only will Japan be told equality is impossible but one of the proposals probably the United States will make that a real 5-5-3 ratio be established. The 5-5-3 ratio is supposed to exist now, but interested powers have long insisted unofficially that the actual ratio gives Japan a 5-3-4 standing.

At present the United States has formed no definite program for the conference, and Washington will await reports of Ambassador Bingham before making its plans. However, from a reliable source it was ascertained, the United States is considering an aggressive attitude as far as Japanese demands for equality are concerned.

The extent to which Japan will go in demanding more naval power is unknown, but it is believed her desire for equality will dominate both the naval conference and the preliminary discussions.

Lewis Carr Dies at St. Louis Saturday

Lewis Carr, 38, former Hope citizen, died Saturday morning in St. Louis, friends were advised here.

Funeral and burial services will be held Tuesday at St. Mary, Ohio. Mr. Carr made his home in Hope for a number of years, moving from here to St. Louis.

Too Late to Classify
FOR SALE OR TRADE: 1933 V-8 Tudor sedan, very reasonable. O. A. Williams, Barlow Hotel. 2-3p.

ERNEST PALS DICK
CURB MARKET
Anything in the Vegetable Line. Fresher and Just as Cheap. Call on Us.

HOSE SALE
89c Pair
2 Pairs $1.50
THE GIFT SHOP
Phone 252

guaranteed
RADIO SERVICE
Hempstead Co. Lbr. Co.
HOYT ANDRES
Phone 39

SALE
LINEN DRESSES
AND SUITS
$5.95
LADIES
SPECIALTY SHOP
"Extensive But Not Expensive"

The latest hair styles for summer are short bobs well fitted to the head

Foreign Statesman

HORIZONTAL

1 Foreign statesman in picture?
2 Driving command.
3 Figure in prayer.
4 Wing.
5 To make full.
6 Saccinct.
7 Lyre-like instrument.
8 Part in a drama.
9 Loom bar.
10 Lifeless.
11 Corpse.
12 Period.
13 Masculine pronoun.
14 Operation of intelligence only.
15 To scold.
16 Cry of a crow.
17 Coffee oven.
18 He was president of his country.

ANSWERS TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

1. SIR
2. C
3. DEM
4. T
5. C
6. T
7. C
8. T
9. C
10. T
11. C
12. T
13. C
14. T
15. C
16. T
17. C
18. T
19. C
20. T
21. C
22. T
23. C
24. T
25. C
26. T
27. C
28. T
29. C
30. T
31. C
32. T
33. C
34. T
35. C
36. T
37. C
38. T
39. C
40. T
41. C
42. T
43. C
44. T
45. C
46. T
47. C
48. T
49. C
50. T
51. C
52. T
53. C
54. T
55. C
56. T
57. C
58. T
59. C
60. T
61. C
62. T
63. C
64. T
65. C
66. T
67. C
68. T
69. C
70. T
71. C
72. T
73. C
74. T
75. C
76. T
77. C
78. T
79. C
80. T
81. C
82. T
83. C
84. T
85. C
86. T
87. C
88. T
89. C
90. T
91. C
92. T
93. C
94. T
95. C
96. T
97. C
98. T
99. C
100. T

P. A. Lewis Motor Co.
Third & Washington
Used Cars, New and Used Parts,
Batteries, Tires.
Washing, Greasing, Gas and Oils.

Market Place
Remember, the more you tell, the quicker you sell.
1 time, 10c line, min. 30c
For consecutive insertions, minimum of 3 lines in one ad.
3 times, 6c line, min. 50c
6 times, 5c line, min. 90c
26 times, 3 1/2c line, min. $2.70
(Average 5 1/2 words to the line)
NOTE—Want ads may be charged with the understanding that the bill is payable on presentation of statement, before the first publication.
Phone 768

WANTED TO RENT
WANTED TO RENT: Six-room house in desirable neighborhood. Phone T. A. Hendrix at 634 after 3 p. m. 1-3p.
WANTED—Three or four-room furnished apartment, must be reasonable. Phone 114-W between 5 and 6 p. m. 2-11c.

NOTICE
Best Paint Sold—Hope Bldg. Mat. Co.
We have several parties who wish to BUY a home in Hope. Also some GOOD renters. List your property with us for rent or sale. BRIDWELL & TYLER.
26-8c.

LOST
LOST—Platinum diamond wristwatch, South Elm on way to town. Property Mrs. W. A. Forbes. $35 reward. Notify Star office. 3013p
LOST: White and liver female pointer four months old. Lost Thursday night. Chas. Bryan. Phone 886. Reward. 1 -3c.

FOR RENT
FOR RENT—Five room house, $10 per month, Gateway Park. Mrs. J. E. Schooley, Phone 1638-4R. 30-31c

FOR SALE
FOR SALE: 10-week old white Wyandotte pullets. Cheap. Mrs. J. M. Hinds, Route 5. 1-3c.

We now have a car load of our corn on the Frisco tracks. This is the last car we will ship this year and you are urged to buy now. See us either Wednesday, Thursday, Friday or Saturday. Southern Grain & Produce Co. 30-31c.

Wall Paper—Hope Bldg. Mat. Co.

Hot Weather Demands Better Oil
Change to HAVOLINE
Heat is your motor's worst enemy. Havoline stops heat producing friction.
Firestone Tires
TEXACO Certified Service Station
Tom Boyett Dorsey McKee Jr. Third & Shover

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

NOW, YOU LADS REMAIN IN THE CAR WHILE I PAY A CALL ON THIS FARMHOUSE AND, REMEMBER, I AM SENATOR McFADDLE, ON TOUR! KEEP YOUR TONGUE IN YOUR CHEEK, AND LET ME DO ALL THE TALKING—AND I GUARANTEE WE GET A CHICKEN DINNER AND A NIGHT'S LODGING!

WE GOTCHA, SENATOR—YOU DO TH' KNITTIN' AN' WE HOLD TH' YARN! SNUFFY IS YOUR CHAUFFEUR AN' I HAVE A PENCIL, SO THAT MAKES ME YOUR SECRETARY!

WHAT KIND OF LINE WILL YOU GIVE THAT COLLIE ON TH' PORCH? LEAVE TH' GATE OPEN, SENATOR!

WELL, PUT IT OVER—

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

TSK TSK! HOW THESE LOVERS DO SUFFER! BOY! THEY TAKE IT.

THAT'S WHERE YOU N' AINT BOTHERED, THOUGH, EH, PAL? WE'RE BOTH SO HOMELY, NO FEMALE WOULD TAKE A SECOND LOOK AT US—EXCEPT OUTTA CURIOSITY.

ALLEY OOP

WHY, YOU—YOU—GRRRAHH! GUARDS! GRAB THIS GUY! BOOT HIM! THROW HIM TO TH' CROCODILES!

SO YA WON'T GIVE DINNER UP, EH?

WASH TUBBS

STILL UNHURRIED, THE GANGSTERS EMERGE FROM THE BANK, REMOVE THEIR GAS MASKS AND PANIC THE CROWD WITH BURSTS OF MACHINE GUN FIRE INTO THE AIR.

LOOK OUT! DON'T SHOOT!

THEN, HOLDING FRIGHTENED GIRLS AS SHIELDS, THE DESPERADOES SPEED AWAY.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

WHERE Y'ARE FOLKS, THE FEATURED PLAYERS IN SHADYSIDE'S UNUSUAL COURT TRIAL... LOOK 'EM OVER....

HERE IS ED MASON, JEWELER AND DEFENDANT. HE'S BEING SUED BY....

DIRK, WHO CLAIMS HE WAS THROWN INTO JAIL WITHOUT JUST CAUSE.

THE NEWFANGLES (Mom'n Pop)

THAT WAS BEFORE THE TRAFFIC COP WAS WATCHED FROM HIS SHELL OF AUTHORITY.

IN THEM GOOD OLD DAYS, MANY AN OLD GUY GOT A SUMMONS FOR BURNING UP THE SIDEWALKS IN HIS WHEEL-CHAIR.

THEY DIDN'T GET WISE THAT GASOLINE WOULD EXPLODE IN A CYLINDER UNTIL TWENTY YEARS AFTER THE DEACON TOOK HIS FIRST NOSE-DIVE OFF THAT HIGH-WHEELER.

By AHERN

OUT OUR WAY

By WILLIAMS

WHAT? BEEN WORKIN' RIGHT NEXT DOOR TO THAT MACHINE FOR FIFTEEN YEARS, AND YOU SAY YOU CAN'T RUN IT! DAVE'S OFF, AND I WANT A JOB DONE ON IT—AND YOU CAN'T RUN IT!

WELL, I—UH—I—WELL—

I'LL ANSWER FOR HIM—NO, I CAN'T RUN IT, BECAUSE I SPENT THEM FIFTEEN YEARS TENDIN' STRICTLY TO MY OWN BUSINESS.

EVERYBODY LIKES A GUY WHO TENDS TO HIS OWN BUSINESS TILL HIS BUSINESS BOTHERS THEIR BUSINESS.

THE STAY-AT-HOME

Thinking Out Loud!

WELL, I, I DUNNO, MEBBE WE'RE JUS' AS WELL OFF, AT THAT! I AIN'T SO SURE WE'RE MISSIN' MUCH! "HUH? OH, YUH THINK I'M WRONG? YOU, WITH THAT FRONT-PIECE? OKAY! WOT IF YUH WERE A CLARK GABLE, BACK WHERE Y' CAME FROM? WOT'D IT GETCHA? LOOK AT YUH NOW! YER JUS' TH' HEAD MAN OF A DUDE FLEA RANCH, THAT'S ALL.

"LOVE HAS MADE BUMS OUTTA BETTER MEN THAN YOU! NOW, Y' TAKE THESE LADS WHO ARE CHASIN' AFTER BOOTS—IF THEY'D BE SATISFIED WITH A LITTLE LOVE, IT'D BE OKAY—BUT, OH NO! THEY ALWAYS WANNA MAKE SOME MORE! YUH BOYS ARE ALL ALIKE! IT'S SIMPLY ANOTHER CASE OF OVER-PRODUCTION! I MUST RUN DOWN T' WASHINGTON N' SEE TH' BOYS ABOUT THAT.

Shades of General Custer!

WHOOSH! NOW I AM IN BAD!—AN' THERE'S GONNA BE TOO MANY OF 'EM FOR ME—

C'MON MEN, GIT 'IM! DEAD OR ALIVE!

The Getaway!

NOT ON THEIR TRAIL, AND WITH SIRENS SCREAMING, COME THREE POLICE CARS.

ARMED CITIZENS, INCLUDING WASH AND EASY, HOP INTO OTHER CARS. THE CHASE IS ON!

By BLOSSER

NOW, MEET JUDGE HOOPENDOOP! HE'S GOING TO TRY THE CASE.

AND THIS IS LEM CEDARS, COUNSEL FOR MR. MASON.

AND THIS IS THE BOY WHO INNOCENTLY CAUSED THE WHOLE THING—WHEN HE WANTED VACATION MONEY, HE DECIDED TO SHIFT FOR HIMSELF... AT PRESENT HE'S IN REVERSE.....

By COWAN

HEY, GANG! LOOK WHO'S COMING DOWN THE BOULEVARD! THE OLD DEACON HIMSELF!

BABY, I'LL BET, AT HIS LAST PUBLIC APPEARANCE, THE SPEED LIMIT WAS SEVEN MILES AN HOUR!

BY CRACKY! I'LL SHOW THESE YOUNG WHIPPER-SNAPPERS WHAT REAL SPEED IS!

WHY, IT LOOKS LIKE DEACON DALTON!